

Gender biography questions

1. When did I feel like I belonged to a specific gender category?
Was that always clear?
2. Did I behave in a manner typical for my gender?
3. How was my relationship with people who were not my gender, and how is it today?
4. How important is the gender of a person for me in different contexts?
5. In what ways do I want to be atypical today regarding my gender?