What is a good relationship?

spend time together	help each other always have the same opinion	talk to each other not telling others secrets	give presents not having other friends	be the same age always be there for each other	defend each other have the same sex/gender	have the same amount of money have fun	be able to trust each other fight with each other	tell each other everything feel protected	ask for advice have the same hobbies	live in the same place/city